The Charles Carr Award for Blount County's Volunteer of the Year

Volunteers are the cornerstone of any organization and are vital to raising awareness in the communities where they live and work. In 2011, the Blount County-Oneonta Chamber of Commerce adopted the Charles Carr Award for Blount County's Volunteer of the Year to honor those individuals for their commitment to outstanding volunteerism and making a difference to so many throughout Blount County.

Nominations should include a written statement about the individual's outstanding voluntary contributions toward the benefit of the Blount County community and why that individual should be considered for the award. Nominees must be residents of Blount County. Please include the attached form with your written statement. The recipient is honored at the Chamber's Annual Dinner held in March of each year.

Selection of the Charles Carr Volunteer of the Year will be made by secret ballot by a committee of five individuals from across Blount County. This selection committee will be appointed by the Executive Board of the Blount County-Oneonta Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors. This year's executive board is John Bullard, Chairman; Richard Phillips, First Vice Chair; T Ray Mauldin, Second Vice Chair; Johnna Pannell, Treasurer; and Weslie Powell, Chairman Emeritus

Please note, current members of the Chamber board, elected officials and those running for public office will not be eligible for the award.
